

SUB-THEME 5: CLIMATE CHANGE

- (i) Universities and governments should adopt integrative and interdisciplinary approaches to climate change.
- (ii) Universities should develop research models and education strategies to mitigate and adapt to the effects of climate change.
- (iii) Universities should include/mainstream agro-forestry and climate change training in university curriculum.
- (iv) Universities should seek active involvement in the formulation of appropriate policies that relate to climate change.